President of the United States. This has been the United States election from start to finish," wrote Sen. Ted Cruz, the Texas senator who was atop the delegate count Monday. The Republican convention takes place Monday and is expected to last three days, including the formal nomination. Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) announced that the district will be closing all schools on March 19. This announcement comes after multiple announcements from public health organizations in the region stating they will close schools beginning March 17, if the coronavirus does not abate. The Board of Education stated the decision was made by the Superintendent to close schools in light of the evolving public health situation that has infected more than a thousand people in the United States and over 34,000 worldwide. The school closures are effective immediately and are necessary to promote the health and safety of students and their families. "We are doing our due diligence to determine the health, welfare, and safety of our students and staff in light of the coronavirus outbreak," said Dr. Robert Betts, Superintendent of the Fairfax County Public Schools. The decision was made by the Superintendent, "He went to a place where he felt it was best for the wellbeing of our students, families, and all of our school community. I've made the decision to close schools. Based on our current data and models, I've made the decision to close schools starting March 19th. I want to make
